

The information on this form is intended to ensure that the correct mailing address of the owner(s) of any property is known to the British Columbia Assessment Authority (BC Assessment) for its production of the Assessment Roll. Accordingly, this information is collected by BC Assessment under the authority of Section 3 of the Assessment Act. Under s.70 of the Act, a person who knowingly provides false or misleading information to BC Assessment commits an offence.

In the rare event of an owner of a residential property being demonstrably fearful of personal and/or familial harm upon the publishing of their name(s) in the publicly-available version of the assessment roll, under s.68 of the Act the owner may make application to the assessor for omitting or obscuring their personal name from the roll. In the event that this is granted, the correct name shall still be shown on versions of the assessment roll supplied to government agencies as well as to the property taxing authority.

Further information on the above may be obtained by contacting the assessor.
